BUILD A BOARD

Steps to building the perfect board

1. How many people are you serving?
How much other food will be served?
2. What type of event is it? Sometimes the event or time of year dictates the type of flavors you plan to serve.
3. Remember that looks matter. Using a variety of colors, having stacks of food, shingling food, and garnishing will contribute to the overall look.
4. Offer a variety of cheeses for different textures. Choose soft cheeses like Brie and Mozzarella, strong flavors like Blue Cheese and Gouda, and hard cheese such as Aged Cheddar and Parmesan. About 3-4 oz. of cheese per person is a good serving.
5. Pick 2-3 different cured meats like prosciutto, salami or pepperoni. Plan on about 2 oz. of meat per person.
6. Thin slices of baguette or lighter crackers should complement your cheese and meat choice.

Many cheeses taste better close to or at room temperature. Pull these cheeses out of the refrigerator an hour or so before serving.

- A photograph of a cheese board on a white marble surface. The board includes several types of cheese: a wedge of brie with a white rind, a block of yellow cheddar, and some soft white cheese. It is garnished with fresh strawberries, a row of sliced baguette, a pile of pecans, and some dried fruit.
7. Fill your board with pairings that complement the cheese or add spice, sweetness, and crunch.
 8. Always have something spreadable such as jelly, jam, or honey. Sometimes stone-ground mustard is a great choice.
 9. Serve bright colorful fresh fruit such as pomegranate or grapes. It's great to use a sprig of grapes to add height to the board.

10. Always serve crunchy items such as pecans, walnuts, almonds, or even crisp dried fruit such as apple chips.
11. Add decorative elements to your cheese board to add visual interest and seasonal appeal. You can add fresh herbs, gourds, kale, or green onion.

Find everything you need for your cheese board in our Specialty Cheese department. We have over 250 cheeses from around the world, plus specialty cured meat!
